

NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENT

Non-degree seeking students are those students who have not been admitted as candidates for a degree at Randolph-Macon College. Categories of non-degree seeking students may include but are not limited to exchange students, post-baccalaureate students, and college faculty and staff and their dependents.

Generally, non-degree seeking applicants must present academic or other credentials comparable to those of admitted full-time students. Randolph-Macon does not generally accommodate non-degree seeking status requests from traditional college applicants who are initially denied admission or persons not eligible to return to the last institution attended.

Non-degree seeking students are expected to maintain academic standards comparable to those of degree seeking students. Non-degree seeking students whose academic performance is unsatisfactory may be prohibited from future enrollment.
