NURSING PROGRAM REGULATIONS

The Bachelor of Science in Nursing program has academic regulations specific to the BSN. Refer to the Department of Nursing section of the catalog for relevant policies. In cases where the nursing program policies may be more restrictive than institutional policies, including but not limited to those regarding registration changes, academic progression, and repeated courses, the nursing program policies will be applied.