

ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE

---

Randolph-Macon College welcomes applications for admission from students who demonstrate sound academic preparation, show strong motivation, and exhibit desirable personal characteristics. The Committee on Admissions endeavors to select for admission students who are best qualified to profit from the program of the college and who, at the same time, will contribute to the life of the college.

Freshmen and qualified transfer students from accredited colleges may apply for admission for either fall or spring.

- Admission Factors (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/admission-factors/>)
- Courses Approved for Advanced Placement Credit (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/courses-approved-advanced-placement-credit/>)
- Credit-By-Examination (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/credit-examination/>)
- Early Action Plan (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/early-action-plan/>)
- Early Decision (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/early-decision/>)
- Early Entrance (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/early-entrance/>)
- International Students (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/international-students/>)
- Preparation for Admission (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/preparation-admission/>)
- Readmission (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/readmission/>)
- Regular Admission Procedures (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/regular-admission-procedures/>)
- Transfer Students (<https://catalog.rmc.edu/admission-college/transfer-students/>)